Coach Education Tutor

Consultancy Basis

Country wide

England Athletics (EA) develops and promotes athletics and running across the whole of the country. Our role includes working with affiliated clubs, officials, schools, and coaches. We also provide national level competition and work on athlete development beneath world class performance level.

We are currently recruiting for Coach Education Tutors (on a consultancy basis) to cover the Coach Education course portfolio across England, specifically covering the Leadership in Running Fitness, Coaching Assistant, Coach in Running Fitness and Athletics Coach courses.

The Tutoring role predominantly involves working weekends (a minimum availability of 8 days per annum is required) and working with other Tutors co-delivering specific course content.

The successful candidates will have significant and relevant experience as a coach, as well as relevant and appropriate technical knowledge and understanding of athletics content in the courses applying to deliver. In addition, the successful candidates will have experience in delivering educational programmes, meeting the learning outcomes of the course / qualification.

An inclusive approach to working is essential, as all qualifications have consideration for disability, gender and ethnicity.

Candidates must hold a British Athletics Level 2 Coach licence, or Coach licence in any area of specialism of the current Coach Education programme (Athletics Coach or Coach in Running Fitness), as a minimum qualification.

For more information and to apply for this role, please follow the link and visit our website; http://www.englandathletics.org/about-england-athletics/job-vacancies or contact Paul Moseley (Coach Development and Education Manager) pmoseley@englandathletics.org for an informal discussion regarding the Tutoring role.

Closing date for applications is 17:00 on Friday 8th February 2019

Interviews will take place on the following dates and venues:

Saturday 16th March 2019 – Brunel University.
Saturday 13th March 2019 – Exeter (tbc).

Growing the next generation of athletics champions
England Athletics is an equal opportunities employer and positively encourages applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief.
